The Bucknell University was chartered by an Act of the Pennsylvania Legislature, approved by Governor Francis R. Shunk, on the fifth day of February, 1846. On the fifth day of October, of that year, the school was opened under the principalship of Stephen W. Taylor, LL.D. In 1847, college classes were organized, and in 1851, the first class, seven in number, was graduated.

In this catalogue are given the names of all the Trustees, Curators, Presidents, Professors, Instructors and Tutors; all the Alumni, Matriculates and Honorary Alumni of the College; the Professors and Graduates of the Theological Department; the names of the Principals of the Institute and Academy, and of the Teachers who have served two years or more, and of the graduates of the Institute and the School of Music.

THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT

In 1855, a Department of Theology was organized, and continued for thirteen years. The first Class graduated in 1857, and the last Class in 1868, when the Department was discontinued in favor of Crozer Theological Seminary, located at Chester, Pa. The Alumni of this department, at the time of the change, were constituted Alumni of the newly created Theological Seminary.
